

American Airlines DC-10

Photo Courtesy American Airlines

dp

MADE BY DEXTER PRESS
WEST NYACK, NEW YORK

DC-10 LUXURY LINER

The world's first commercial DC-10 flight was made by American Airlines on August 5, 1971, from Los Angeles to Chicago. The DC-10 with three quiet smoke-free engines, can carry about 250 passengers and nearly 32,000 pounds of cargo at a cruising speed of 600 mph. Its wing span is 155 ft., 4 in.

6-20 D-37616-D